The Unbridled

A rustic dining table is elegantly set for a meal. The table is covered with a white lace tablecloth and features several small, light-colored ceramic vases holding various flowers, including red and white blooms. Three tall, lit candles in glass holders provide warm, ambient lighting. In the foreground, two wine glasses and a water glass are visible, along with a folded white napkin and silverware. The background shows wooden chairs and a stone fireplace, creating a cozy and inviting atmosphere.

“We couldn’t recommend it enough or emphasise how organised and kind all the Elmley team are who truly make your day run seamlessly!”

Whether you choose to begin your day with a morning run, nature walk, dawn yoga, a wild swim in the dipping pond or at a more leisurely pace, breakfast is served to you and your guests in your accommodation.
